PREZ SEZ

OCTOBER 2012

BY KARA MAYTAG-KASZAS

The wonderful days of fall are upon us and hopefully we will have a few more mild days to get those walks in with our pups and finish our yard work before the snow flies! Looking at the long range forecast it looks like we will have a sunny although slightly brisk walk around Lake Harriet for our annual walk on Sunday, October 28th. We will have our usual stop at the halfway point with some warm drinks and treats to keep us going!

Another thanks to the team of people who helped with our fall garage sale including RJ and CJ Ronyak serving as hosts and Pam Ziegenhagen who helped get everything organized. It was again a great success and raised about $500 for the club. The combination of the two sales this year brought in over $1200 which significantly helps with the bottom line of the club and keeps our books in the black!

Hope to see you at the upcoming Schnauzer walk on the 28th and at our grooming day on Sunday, Nov 11th. Come out and get your bearded one all groomed up for those holiday pictures!

Best Regards,
Kara Maytag-Kaszas

2012 RDOD = Successful Good Time

This year's AKC Responsible Dog Owners Day was, as usual, lots of fun. We were greeted by a 'coolish' morning with bright sunny skies. The sun felt really great toward mid-day as the winds picked up which only added movement to the booth's banners and our Schnauzer's beards.

The HSSC display was positioned right next to 'our' smaller cousins the miniature Schnauzers. This seemed to be a great way for the public to get to know both breeds and see the differences. Many thanks to the club members for staffing the shifts at our booth. Working as greeters and/or tug weavers and/or groomers; the time and effort of Kelli, Laura, Marjana, Sunny, Kris, Deb, CJ and RJ are appreciated very much.

There's No Charge for Love

A farmer had some puppies he needed to sell. He painted a sign advertising the 4 pups and set about nailing it to a post on the edge of his yard. As he was driving the last nail into the post, he felt a tug on his overalls. He looked down into the eyes of a little boy.

"Mister," he said, "I want to buy one of your puppies."

"Well," said the farmer, as he rubbed the sweat off the back of his neck, "These puppies come from fine parents and cost a good deal of money."

The boy dropped his head for a moment. Then reaching deep into his pocket, he pulled out a handful of change and held it up to the farmer.

"I've got thirty-nine cents. Is that enough to take a look?"

"Sure," said the farmer and with that he let out a whistle. "Here, Dolly!" he called.

Out from the doghouse and down the ramp ran Dolly followed by four little balls of fur.

The little boy pressed his face against the chain link fence. His eyes danced with delight. As the dogs made their way to the fence, the little boy noticed something else stirring inside the doghouse. Slowly another little ball appeared; this one noticeably smaller. Down the ramp it slid. Then in a somewhat awkward manner, the little pup began hobbling toward the others, doing its best to catch up.

"I want that one," the little boy said, pointing to the runt. The farmer knelt down at the boy's side and said, "Son, you don't want that puppy. He will never be able to run and play with you like these other dogs would."

With that the little boy stepped back from the fence, reached down, and began rolling up one leg of his trousers. In doing so he revealed a steel brace running down both sides of his leg attaching itself to a specially made shoe.

Looking back up at the farmer, he said, "You see sir, I don't run too well myself and he will need someone who understands."

With a tear in his eye, the farmer reached down and picked up the little pup. Holding it carefully he handed it to the little boy.

"How much?" asked the little boy... "No charge," answered the farmer, "There's no charge for love."

The world is full of people who need someone who understands.
